

“Inside Equifest”

Box Offices are located on both the North and South side of the Tony’s Pizza Events Center (TPEC).

Tickets (wristbands) are available daily at the box office March 6 through 8, 2020 from 9am until 8pm daily. Single day is $15 and 3-day is $35. Kids 12 & under are FREE.

ARTS @ Equifest. Step inside the Lobby of TPEC to a spacious area nicely carpeted with natural light providing a beautiful site for Arts at Equifest to be brilliantly displayed. The Equifest Show Office and 2020 headliner clinician Chris Cox are also conveniently found here!

Equifest Workshops. Just upstairs from the Lobby or up the elevator if you choose is where the workshop lectures will be. We have an awesome line up for you this year to include saddle fitting, equitation tips, how to get involved in Mounted Shooting, Ranch Horse Versatility, Distance Riding, Dressage and Jumping. You’ll learn about our State Park trails, and agritourism opportunities if you want to start a business, plus tips and tricks for preparing to sell your used tack. There will be lots of Old West tales being told with Old Town Abilene and Jim Gray storytelling about cattle drives on the Chisolm Trail and at the end of the trail – the Smoky Hill River. For our Quarter Horse folks, don’t miss the Legendary KS Horsemen forum. On Saturday we’ll have the first ever panel of Kansas Greats who have entered the KQHA Hall of Fame and a Million Dollar Reiner! Our very own, Denny Hassett, Duane Walker, C.A. Cofer and Brent Wright will share stories of their competitive careers plus answer questions fielded from the crowd. A piece of history in the making!

Shopping. Go East off the Lobby to Heritage Hall where you’ll see vendors filling the room. Go West off the Lobby to the TPEC Arena Concourse where you’ll see MORE vendors all around the concourse of the Main arena!

In the Main TPEC Arena, come see Chris Cox, Mette Rosencrantz, & John Staples in action, don’t miss mounted shooting, draft hitch teams, Battle of the Breeds and the Ranch Rodeo too!

To the South from TPEC just across the street is the Saline County Expo Center (SCEC).

Check out some awesome trailers and tractors on display. If you're hungry you can't miss one of the five great food truck vendors with anything from kettle corn to barbeque to Jamaican jerk to gourmet burgers and the list goes on! Plenty of seating for you to duck inside Ag Hall, 4H building or Kenwood Hall to sit and enjoy your food!

From East to West at SCEC there is something in EVERY building! Starting on the East at "Barn 2" you'll see the Kansas Farriers Association's annual competition. On Friday they will compete in Individual Forging, taking raw steel, heating it and building horseshoes, from 9am to 3pm. On Saturday come watch a 2-man draft shoeing competition from 9am to 10:30am and after a short break they reconvene again from noon to 4pm for a live shoeing competition! There will also be a display of antique horse drawn farm equipment in Barn 2 throughout the weekend. Maybe you'll say, "I remember when..."

Welcome to the Stall Barn. Next building over is the Stall Barn, also called Exhibition Hall where the exhibiting horses will be on display. Come see different breeds of horses, big and small, decorated booths and displays of various breed organizations and equine businesses you may have never known about!

Then you will come to Ag Hall Arena. This is the historic brick arena building built with 1922 war bonds. It's a nostalgic place! Come in and sit a while with your food truck goodies in hand, snacking and watching one of the great demos that will be happening! There you'll find the American Freedom Riders Drill Team, Stimatze Working Dog demonstrations, Jay Henson demonstrating Ranch Horse Versatility skills, Casey Hufstader and his Pack Mules, Ashley Purdin providing tips for gaining your horse's focus and bridle less riding, and Sara Track providing horsemanship skills for the saddle seat rider and really all equestrians, plus the ever popular Breed Showcase where you'll see 6 different breeds on display exhibiting skills and traits that are breed characteristics. You may learn something new about these horses!

Head on west from there to the 4H Building, or Ponderosa as we like to call it! Step inside to more retail vendors, the KHC Foundation Silent Auction, and many clinicians and workshop speakers will be available to meet and greet in here. Check out the stage where Cowboy Poets and Musicians including Geff & Dawn Dawson and company will be entertaining folks throughout the day or catch a live interview broadcast of Better Horses Network! Just need a place to sit?

Relax at a table and take it all in!

Next over is Kenwood Hall. Kansas Farm Bureau Kids' Corral is located here! Along with MORE shopping! Plus, we'll have some interactive workshops including a live demonstration of scoping a horse, maybe some horse yoga and you'll get some nutrition news here too! Oh, and souvenirs! There will be an Old Time photobooth from Old Town Abilene ready to dress you up and take a family pic! So much to see and do!
